New York (CNN) President Donald Trump claimed in a tweet Friday that he has been right about China but didn't offer any specific evidence to back up the claim. The President also touted what he described as the "fantastic" economy and said that "China is going to do great." Fantastic jobs numbers just out - and the Economy is looking even better than anticipated. Trade deficit down & imbalanced trade is our new foundation! — Donald J. Trump (@realDonaldTrump) August 1, 2017 The tweet was a response to a Fox Business Network report that said the US trade deficit hit a record $566 billion in July as exports dropped and imports grew. Trump blamed the news for "not 'getting it'" with respect to China. He said that China's total trade deficit in July was $50 billion, while that of the US was $76 billion. But the deficit with the world was actually $281 billion last month, according to a World Trade Organization report.
